

Nintendo Gateway - Super NES Executive Game Summary

Game Title Boxing Legends of the Ring™

Trademark Attribution ©1993 Electro Brain Corp.

Game Description This is one of the most realistic boxing games to come out for the Super NES. There are several different modes to play and all the legendary middleweights: Marvin Hagler, Jake LaMotta, Sugar Ray Robinson, James Toney, Rocky Graziano, Roberto Duran, Thomas Hearns, and Sugar Ray Leonard. You can even create your own fighter and become a legend yourself!.

Choose from 8 Champions, or create your own boxer
 3 Modes: Exhibition, Career, and Battle of the Legends
 8 different punches

Controller Information

Menu Screen:
Exhibition:	Box as one of the legends , or enter a password to play your own created boxer.
Career:	Create your own boxer and then fight through the ranks.
Battle of Legends:	Fight the very best. You can use your created boxer only after winning the career mode
Control Pad
Left:	Move boxer left. Also used for punches in conjunction with the A or Y Buttons.
Right:	Move boxer right. Also used for punches in conjunction with the A or Y Buttons.
Down:	Duck. Also used for punches in conjunction with the A or Y Buttons.
Up:	Block. Also used for punches in conjunction with the A or Y Buttons.
A Button:	Breaks clinch, helps the player get up when knocked down and throws various punches when used in conjunction with the Control Pad.
B Button:	Throws a jab when used alone or throws various punches when used in conjunction with the Control Pad.
Start Button:	Starts and Paused the game.
Select Button:	Throws a Super Punch.
X,B,L and R Buttons:	Not Used.