

Nintendo Gateway - Super NES Executive Game Summary

Game Title TETRIS® & DR. MARIO®

Trademark Attribute ™ & ® are trademarks of Nintendo of America Inc. © 1989 Nintendo. Original concept, designs and program by Alexey Pazhitnov. Tetris® Licensed to Nintendo by The Tetris Company. All rights reserved.

Game Description The two greatest puzzle games are now together in one exciting game!

Tetris

The relentless building block video puzzle from Russia is back and enhanced for Super NES. Play solo, or challenge one of three computer opponents in this exciting and addicting game.

Dr. Mario

Those nasty viruses have returned for the Super NES and Dr. Mario, vitamin pills in hand is ready to eliminate them once more. You can even challenge the computer in the guise of the Blue, Yellow or Red Virus.

Controller Information

Control Pad:

Left:	Move block or capsule left.
Right:	Move block or capsule right.
Down:	Drop block or capsule quickly.
A Button:	Rotates the block or capsule 90° clockwise. On MENU screens, use this button to enter settings.
B Button:	Rotates the block or capsule 90° counter-clockwise. On MENU screens, use this button to undo settings or return to the previous screen.
Start Button:	Start and Pause the game.
Select Button:	During Tetris, press this button to hide the "NEXT" block display.
X, Y, L and R:	Not used.

Hints & Tips

Hints:

1) Pause

If you push the START Button during the game, you will pause the action. To re-start the game, press the START Button again.

2) Reset

To reset the game back to the title screen, press the A, B, START and SELECT Buttons simultaneously. Resetting the game will not erase the high scores.